

Terms of subsidy

This training is primarily aimed at small and medium companies (SMEs). SMEs and small mid-caps can benefit from an 85% deduction from the original price. The discount is provided in regime de minimis (in accordance with EU Commission Regulation No.1407/2013). We arrange the entire administration of de minimis support for you and in this respect, we will contact you after your registration.

Subsidized price for these specific oriented training courses could be provided for up to 4 participants from your company cumulatively during the duration of the EDIH Ostrava project (2023-2025) unless otherwise determined in the future. Each additional participant will be charged full price.

Additional Information

Participants representing other sectors, e.g. large mid-caps, large companies or public institutions, may also attend. However, the number of attendees beyond SMEs is limited and is subject to prior approval.

After the number of registrations has reached its maximum or the registration form has been closed, you may want to email us stating that you are interested in being put on the waiting list. (Vacancies may occur due to cancellations, etc.) E-mail to training@edihostrava.cz

Cancellation Policy

If the registrant is unable to attend the training for any reason, the company/ institution may substitute them by arrangement with the registrar. If the registrant is unable to attend and is not in a position to transfer their place to another person, then the following refund arrangements apply:

- Registrations cancelled more than 14 days before the training; the registration fee will be fully refunded.
- Registrations cancelled less than 14 days before the event will not be eligible for a refund.

To request a cancellation or to make a change, contact training@edihostrava.cz